

CALL FOR THE ECPHM MOCK EXAM 2024

Dear ECPHM Residents,

The ECPHM offers a mock examination each year tailored to the unique format of the ECPHM Exam. The Examination Committee will organize a Mock exam for all Residents willing to participate this autumn. This remote exam will be held electronically with the program ExamSoft on the 4th- 5th of November 2024. Residents will participate in the exam from their home or office with their own computer. The Mock exam will consist of 1/6 of the written part of the actual ECPHM exam, and we expect all Residents intending to sit the written part of the exam in 2025 to attend this Mock exam.

The only specific requirement to take part in the Mock exam is to follow precisely the procedure explained below.

Date of examination: 04.11.2024 - 05.11. 2024

Place of examination: Teams-meeting, ExamSoft

Deadline for application: ~~November 1st, 2024~~ October 25, 16.00 CET

How to apply: Go to ECPHM website (www.ecphm.org) and submit the online application form at latest on ~~Nov 1st~~ October 25, 2024 – 16.00 CET. This is considered as confirmation of the attendance to the Mock exam.

Program for the Mock exam:

Nov 04

- CET 8:30-9:15. Teams lecture: Introduction, general things about the exam (Marianne Oropeza-Moe)
- CET 9:15-10:00. Teams lecture: Practical things about the electronic exam (Nicolas Rose)
- Coffee break
- CET 10:30-12:30 Exam with ExamSoft

Nov 05

- CET 8:30-10:00. Teams lecture: Answers to questions, results of the Mock exam (Andrea Luppi)
- CET 10:00-10:30. Teams lecture: Discussion about the technical part of the exam (Marianne Oropeza-Moe)

The procedure after ECPHM receives the online registration from the Resident:

- The Examination Committee will register in the system those Residents who have submitted the online application at latest on Nov 1, and the system will then invite these Residents to participate in the Mock exam and to load the Mock Exam in their computer before the exam (you will download the software Examplify first and then the Mock exam package, but you will not be able to open the exam file unless we provide you with the password. This will be provided just before the session starts).

Looking forward to seeing many Residents participating in the Mock exam!

All the best,

Marianne Oropeza-Moe, the Chair of the ECPHM Examination Committee
