

CALL FOR THE ECPHM MOCK EXAM 2026

Dear ECPHM Residents,

The ECPHM offers a mock examination each year tailored to the unique format of the ECPHM Exam. The Examination Committee will organize a Mock exam for all Residents willing to participate this autumn. This remote exam will be held electronically with the program ExamSoft on the 24th- 25th of November 2026. Residents will participate in the exam from their home or office with their own computer. The Mock exam will consist of 1/6 of the written part of the actual ECPHM exam, and we expect all Residents intending to sit the written part of the exam in 2027 to attend this Mock exam.

The only specific requirement to take part in the Mock exam is to follow precisely the procedure explained below.

Date of examination: 24.11.2026 - 25.11. 2026

Place of examination: Teams-meeting, ExamSoft

Deadline for application: November 1st, 2026

How to apply: Go to ECPHM Mock Exam 2026 – Fill out form and submit the online application form at latest on Nov 1st, 2026. This is considered as confirmation of the attendance to the Mock exam.

Program for the Mock exam:

Tuesday 24. November 2026

- 08:30–09:30 Teams lecture: Introduction and general information about the exam (Speaker: Alexander Grahofer)
- 09:30–10:30 Teams lecture: Practical aspects of the electronic exam (Speaker: Andrea Luppi)
- 10:30–11:00 Coffee Break
- 11:00–13:00 Mock Exam via ExamSoft

Wednesday, 25. November 2026

- 08:30–10:00 Teams lecture: Review of results and Q&A session (Speaker: Alexander Grahofer; Exam committee)
- 10:00–11:00 Teams lecture: Technical aspects of the exam (Speaker: Andrea Luppi; Exam committee)

The procedure after ECPHM receives the online registration from the Resident:

- The Examination Committee will register in the system those Residents who have submitted the online application at latest on Nov 1, and the system will then invite these Residents to participate in the Mock exam and to load the Mock Exam in their computer before the exam (you will download the software Examplify first and then the Mock exam package, but you will not be able to open the exam file unless we provide you with the password. This will be provided just before the session starts).

Looking forward to seeing many Residents participating in the Mock exam!

All the best,

Alexander Grahofer, the Chair of the ECPHM Examination Committee
